Reyourairtel 8/23/61.

Efforts to locate PETE NADIAN in Los Angeles area have been negative. PCI [redacted] (protect identity) advised that NADIAN is not now living with ANN FENNER in Encino, California. A California driver's license was issued on 6/5/61 to PETE NADIAN, 4655 Whiteoak Avenue, Encino, California indicating that NADIAN was at FENNER's address at that time. This registration was stamped "cancelled to Illinois". Records, Bank of America, Van Nuys, California, reflect NADIAN purchased 1958 Ford in June, 1958 from Towne and Country Motors, Van Nuys, where his brother, GEORGE NADIAN is employed. His last known address was 3742 North Pinegrove, Chicago. His employer was Marigold-Bowel, with an [redacted] Chicago. Employment address in June, 1958, was 828 South Grace, Chicago. of America on September 24, 1960 for $907.00 to pay off the car. This company advised that PETER NADIAN had bought a new 1960 Pontiac from them. The title for the 1958 Ford was mailed to NADIAN at 3743 Pinegrove, Chicago, on October 12, 1960. Chicago will contact Mont Clare Pontiac Motor Sales, Inc., 6811-6825 West Grand Avenue, Chicago, and F.A. MAURO and Associates, 3319 North Dark Street, Chicago, to attempt to determine the present address of PETE NDIAN. Also contact Joyce and Company, 309 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago. Will also conduct other logical investigation to locate NADIAN.

It appears desirable to interview PETE NADIAN prior to an interview with ANN FENNER and therefore the interview with FENNER is being deferred until additional efforts are made to locate NADIAN.

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date September 19, 1961

ROBERT GOLDSTINE, 3314 North Lake Shore Drive, Apartment 301, advised that he was born on December 20, 1907, at Chicago, Illinois. He advised that he and his wife HARRIET GOLDSTINE own and operate the Chicago Art Galleries, Inc., located at 5960 North Broadway, Chicago.

GOLDSTINE advised that EDWARD DAVID VOGEL has been a customer of the art galleries for approximately the last fifteen years. He advised that VOGEL comes to the art galleries on various occasions, the last being four days ago, and views the various art objects and antiques on display. Mr. GOLDSTINE advised that he has attempted to obtain VOGEL ss a good and steady customer but VOGEL only makes a purchase periodically and has never made any large purchases to his recollection. He stated VOGEL will look at an object and ask the price and then after "bickering" over the price will state that he can obtain a better price at Holland's Art Galleries which is located across the street from the Drake Hotel on Michigan Avenue, Chicago. He advised that VOGEL is always accompanied by "BUTCH" LADON when he visits the art gallery. He advised that "BUTCH" LADON formerly resided on the same street he, GOLDSTINE, did during his boyhood days.

GOLDSTINE advised to his knowledge he could recall no other so called "Chicago hoodlums" as customers at the art galleries. He stated that JAKE GUZIK, now deceased, used to be a steady and good customer of his. GOLDSTINE emphatically denied that VOGEL has any interest in the art galleries and denied allowing VOGEL to use his vault or premises to store any material or conduct any business. GOLDSTINE insisted that the Agents view the entire premises of the art galleries explaining he is being completely honest with the FBI.

GOLDSTINE searched his records for any purchases made by VOGEL in the past year and located two purchases. The first purchase was made on December 9, 1960, a purchase of three oil paintings described as copies of CORTEZ's, Paris Street Scenes, total cost coming to $310.50. The bill although purchased December 9, 1960, was not paid until June 6, 1961. Mr. GOLDSTINE advised that this purchase was not paid until six months after because he had not pressed the point with VOGEL as he knew the money would be "good".

The second purchase by VOGEL was made on August 16, 1961, in which VOGEL purchased six semi-precious stone clusters at $35 each. A total bill including tax was $239.40 which was marked paid on August 16, 1961. GOLDSTINE advised that these precious stones were quartz. GOLDSTINE volunteered that he would furnish the FBI with any purchases made by VOGEL if contacted periodically by the FBI.

Miss [redacted], Findlay Art Galleries, Inc., 320 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, advised that EDWARD DAVID VOGEL, Apartment 1902-3, 320 Oakdale, Chicago, Illinois, on August 7, 1961, purchased three small paintings from her galleries. The paintings were all by EDOUARD CORTES, a Frenchman who resides in France, and were described as Paris street scenes. Each painting cost $385.00 and including tax of $46.20, the total bill was $1,201.20.

She advised her records revealed these paintings were delivered to his residence on August 26, 1961. She advised that her records further revealed that VOGEL, on August 8, 1961, purchased a large painting by CORTES which cost $1,095.00, however, this painting was returned. She advised in reviewing her records she has learned to her astonishment that three paintings other than the three purchased had also been delivered to VOGEL on August 26, 1961, and he was to determine whether he wished to purchase these paintings. She advised her records failed to reflect that he has purchased these paintings or returned them. She advised that she has to look into this matter and determine the disposition of these paintings as they total an amount of about $1,000.00. She advised she could be contacted at a later date to determine the disposition of the paintings. She advised that VOGEL has never purchased any other painting to her knowledge and has definitely never purchased any valuable paintings. She advised that if any valuable paintings were purchased by anyone in the Chicago area in confidential type dealings or "under the table sales" the likely gallery such a painting could be purchased from is the Sheridan Galleries located at 4820 North Sheridan, Chicago, who enjoys an unfavorable reputation.

She advised that to her knowledge the only galleries which handle expensive paintings in the Chicago area is her gallerye and International Gallery.

GIANCANA: Forget about it!

VOGEL: I got it now as long as I got the money I might as well.....it's up to you.

GIANCANA: That's it.

ALEX: What about WILLY POTATOES (WILLIAM DANDAS)?

GIANCANA: That goes for everybody.

VOGEL: All right that's it.

GIANCANA: And you let them understand that.

VOGEL: That's what I wanted was an understanding that from now on we don't spend a (obs) nickel.

GIANCANA: Put some quarters in that juke box.

ALEX: Somebody told me you were fucking that's why I rushed out here.

GIANCANA: Who's fucking, what's the use, where we gonna go?

(music blares forth)

ALEX: I don't know how in the hell we can overcome the G.

GIANCANA: I don't know either, that's why I'm saying this applies to everybody. This is it. We'll come to that and we'll talk about it.

(money being counted)

ALEX: How much you got there EDDIE?

VOGEL: 10 (drowned out by music)

ALEX: We ain't gonna do nothin'.

GIANCANA: Well if you got a guy that wants to do something for ya go ahead and talk to him and see what he can give ya, but everyone is on his own.

ALEX: .....got to get one of [redacted] to.....talked to [redacted] (more music)

GIANCANA: Don't worry about it that's what I'm saying, what's the difference.

ALEX: I can do it. Please let me handle it. This way they think you're going good, just like EDDIE said I didn't expect anything.

GIANCANA: Just tell the guys that I been thinking about it and this is for the good of everybody.

ALEX: OK then it's dead. If you say so, it's dead.

GIANCANA: From now on everybody is on his own.

(ALEX, GIANCANA, and VOGEL leave)

On 1/23/62, CG 0302-C* advised that an unknown bookmaker was in conference with GUS ALEX on that date and discussing the situation in Cook County whereby the Sheriff's Office has been forced to make arrests on individuals who have purchased Federal gambling stamps during the current fiscal year. The unknown advised ALEX that "the door is not open any place." He then stated that "We are out of business. EDDIE (SAM GIANCANA) can't do nothing. They are looking at him from all angles. He can't do anything if he wanted to."

It would appear from information reported by [redacted] and [redacted] that the Chicago syndicate insofar as their gambling activities are concerned is for all practical purposes at an end due primarily from the intense pressure placed upon the organization by the "G" meaning the Federal Government. This fact coupled with the fact that the state and local authorities have been forced to move against the syndicate has finally brought GIANCANA, ET AL. to the realization that at least for the present [redacted] meaning that they will [redacted] organization nor can anyone expect [redacted]

During the late evening hours of [redacted] and into the early morning of [redacted] related that JOHN D'ARCO, prominent Chicago Democrat and Alderman of the First Ward of Chicago, held a discussion with SAM GIANCANA, which was as follows: b7D

GIANCANA: .....that's the attitude he's got to take.

D'ARCO: I think he'll do that.

GIANCANA: What's the sense in, you are an Alderman now, do you think we're gonna hand you in as a stooge and have somebody else do the work for ya?

D'ARCO: I think he will do that.

GIANCANA: Tell him to stick it.

D'ARCO: I think he will do that because the guy don't give an (obs).

GIANCANA: After all I mean just like when a man is elected Sheriff he's gonna have his top men first and then whatever D'ARCO: Yeah, but here HOW this is a different story. This is a job that if this guy is elected there that's different then he gets his own administration. But I'm not sticking up for the guy. The (obs) ain't strong, he's weak. There's no question about it. But I know he'll quit if I

GIANCANA: Tell him to quit then.

D'ARCO: This guy here is sick. He called me today. He said JOHN let's try to work this kid in.

GIANCANA: Tell him to (obs). Don't give him nothin'. Let him stay with the G. So he makes a little less money, I'll make it up to him at the end of the year anyway.

D'ARCO: Why don't I give him that Probate Courtship?

GIANCANA: (Obs), no if the Democrats lose in a couple of years, three or four years, then what?

D'ARCO: Let's wait until after November and if the guy gets elected in November he stays there for four years.

GIANCANA: Four years, then what happens?

D'ARCO: This kid is a good kid. I like this kid.

GIANCANA: ..... all the (obs) Irishmen are making all the (obs) money and we got seats.

D'ARCO: The G went to FRANK AMMUNDIO. DOWNER and HILL. (DAs WILLIAM F. DOWNER and RALPH H. HILL). They said you were the Ward Committeeman weren't ya. They said how did you get in there. He said what do you mean how did I get in there, I was put there by the Cook County Central Committee. They said yeah when you were there did anybody give you orders. He said what do you mean by anybody giving me orders and they said well you know like DOONEY or HUMPHREYS or GUSSIE ALEX. He said I don't even know them. So they said well how'd you get off. Did D'ARCO push you off. He said D'ARCO didn't push me off. In fact D'ARCO asked me to stay here. They said well does D'ARCO take orders from those guys, we know that DOONEY's a good friend of his, does D'ARCO take orders from DOONEY. He says, I don't know. I don't think he takes orders from anybody. Then they asked him, they said when KENNEDY was coming here, the Attorney General, did you get pressure not to let him come. FRANK said that's a (obs) lie whoever said that. He said we voted unanimous on that. Then they said what did D'ARCO do about SPENCER. How come D'ARCO's against SPENCER. You know SPENCER used to be their boss. Then they said how come a guy like [redacted] Cook County) could rise up so fast. He was [redacted] one day, a year later he's an [redacted] and now he's the [redacted] who's pushing him. He said why don't you ask him. He (AMMUNDIO) said he's a high-class lawyer, the joint civic groups are all behind him. So I (D'AMICO) sent for [redacted] and I said you better get your friend and find out why they (obs), he's you're friend and he's asking more questions about you then he's asking about me. You know HOW that you and [redacted] were seen together in that car that night. They tailed ya.

GIANCANA: They didn't see me, there wasn't nobody around.

[redacted] SAs HILL and LOEMER concerning [redacted] however, the [redacted] b6 b7C b7D [redacted] JOHN D'AMICO and [redacted] D'AMICO was questioned about [redacted] pertaining to [redacted] and expressly [redacted] interviewing Agents [redacted] He [redacted] He described [redacted] as probably the [redacted] who is [redacted] SA LOEMER [redacted] SA LOEMER [redacted] The [redacted] D'AMICO concerning the [redacted] however, one possibility [redacted] is that he [redacted] while at the same time [redacted]

D'ARCO: So ANNUNZIO asked [redacted] why are you asking questions about me and [redacted] said I didn't ask any questions about you, I saw the list of Directors of the Villa Scalabrini and your name was there as Chairman of the Political Committee. So [redacted] told ANNUNZIO [redacted] So then they asked FRANK some more questions about why pressure was put on to keep KENNEDY from coming here for the Columbus Day Parade. LOL, why would they go to ANNUNZIO? b6 b7C

GIANCANA: I don't know. Where did they get his name from?

D'ARCO: I don't know.

GIANCANA: They're trying to patch together something.

D'ARCO: What they're trying to patch together is they're trying to patch a conspiracy like they're trying to tie me and you up.

GIANCANA: On what?

D'ARCO: Oh maybe we're gonna scheme and conspire to (obs) the vote cases or do something. Anything. I don't think they got anything on you. I don't think so. Otherwise they wouldn't be asking so many questions. But I don't think they got anything on you. They must be knocking their (obs) brains out.

GIANCANA: They go all over. They don't miss nothin'. I don't know what they're looking for. .....

D'ARCO: I don't know what the (obs) we're gonna do. This (obs) thing is gettin' to be pitiful.

GIANCANA: They must be working day and night. They must be working hand in hand with that DALEY too.

D'ARCO: You know what I told 'em (Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY), this is pretty good. They're ruining people like us who are trying to make a buck. I said DICK what is this town coming to. I said I'm talking this way because I know what your circumstances were. I know what your circumstances were before you become the leader. I said I'm not just talking to ya like you're a KENNELLY (former Mayor MARTIN J.

KELLEHER) that didn't know what the score was. I said you know how we gotta live. If there's a few Mayors that can make some money out of politics who also could make money unless they got something also going for them. I said what is this even the 23 game is knocked out, not that I give a (obs) about the 23 game. Where are we goin'? So he was telling me the story about how he started how he went to school at night, came in politics, then to Ward politics and you gotta understand all elements in the Ward you know. I said DICK my school of thinking is this, where are we going? We gotta be flexible. I said sure it's good for leaders to be high and mighty but we got these people who don't understand politics and then we talked about OGILVIE (RICHARD B. OGILVIE, Republican candidate for Cook County Sheriff).....

GIANCANA: What'd he say about this SPENCER (RUSSELL T. SPENCER, former SA, Democratic candidate for Cook County Sheriff)?

D'ARCO: ..... you know I got in hot water because of this SPENCER. SPENCER sent word out that D'ARCO was against him. I said what the (obs) who said anything about him. I didn't tell him about SPENCER, I told DUFFY (Alderman JOHN J. DUFFY, President, Cook County Board of Commissioners). I said DICK where are you going after you got this SPENCER..... Oh, you know when you told me to go there, I went there about OGILVIE, remember that, and I said DICK I'll stake my reputation that OGILVIE ain't gonna be the guy and he said, JOHN, OGILVIE is the guy! He said don't tell me OGILVIE ain't gonna be the guy, he is the guy.

GIANCANA: Well then he must have been in on the know.

D'ARCO: Sure he was. He said OGILVIE is the guy, where are we going if we don't put up a guy of his caliber. He said JOHN I'll stake my reputation on OGILVIE gonna be the guy. So then I went down to PETE (PETER C. CHANATA, Republican political leader and Illinois State Representative). I said PETE how the (obs) are we gonna compete with OGILVIE. The Mayor told me OGILVIE's the guy.

He said there ain't no question about it. GIANCANA says tell him he's full of (obs). So I went back and said Pete told me to tell you (obs). I said I know OGILVIE ain't the guy. So he (Mayor DALEY) said JOHN as well as you know what I'm telling ya, OGILVIE IS THE GUY.

GIANCANA: So what difference does it make?

D'ARCO: Well his excuse was a lot of (obs) (Obs) and said that we need a guy to counteract OGILVIE. They're both no (obs) good. One is worse than the other. So I said what about him. He said as far as jobs are concerned, I said I'm not interested in jobs. I said listen when you first got elected I gave you money, I didn't get that (obs) money by picking it off the street. I said I got obligated to people and do you know what he told me? He said haven't I been good to you JOHN for about eight or nine years. He said you gotta go along with the time. He said before the police scandal you could have anything. Listen CON what's the use in talking, this is it, we're in a lot of (obs) trouble.

GIANCANA: We're in no trouble.

D'ARCO: Well as far as making money we're (obs).

GIANCANA: We'll get by. We'll make a living. We'll just go into legitimate business and start making money, history repeats itself. They talk about a lot of (obs) flying around. They'll really see a lot of (obs) flying around now. Like I told the people I says you're on your own, do what you want to do and that's it. b6 b7C

D'ARCO: There ain't no where to go.

GIANCANA: [redacted] Illinois State Senator [redacted] SIDNEY ZOLMAN, prominent attorney and friend of the organization) is supposed to take..... he's backing DIRKSEN, do you know that?

D'AMICO: They're the worst (obs) you know that don't you?

GIANCANA: They're all the same.

D'AMICO: [redacted] talked to him. They went to Washington together. Him and [redacted] SPECIAL. So he said the guy talked very good but I don't like him. b6 b7C

GIANCANA: He's like KENNEDY, he'll get what he can out of ya but you won't get anything out of him.

D'AMICO: Well like he told [redacted] why is D'AMICO against me. I don't know who told this guy that.

GIANCANA: Well why did you?

D'AMICO: I had to LOL, I was desperate. You told me to get this guy out. You gave me an (obs) order.

GIANCANA: Tell the Mayor.....

D'AMICO: Tell this guy in the Almighty. As powerful as you are with us he's as powerful as they are with him. You say do this what the (obs), we don't even ask why we just do it. Right? It's the same thing with him. (DALEY) When you gave me that order to get him off, I got desperate.

GIANCANA: Well it's happened so there's nothing you can do about it. Well as far as the city is concerned we're out and as far as the county is concerned we're out so it looks like we'll just have to go into Indiana and run this thing from Hammond. We'll put up (obs) houses and everything else.

D'AMICO: That (obs) KENNEDY. Is SINATRA gonna work on (FRANK SINATRA).....

GIANCANA: No.

D'AMICO: I heard that the President when he is in California is with SINATRA all the time.

GIANCANA: No (SINATRA) can't get change for a quarter.

D'AMICO: SINATRA can't?

CG 62-350

GIANCANA: That's right.

Well, they got the whip and they're in office and that's it and they got the money behind 'em. So they're gonna knock us guys out of the box and make us defenseless. They figure if you got money you got power, if you don't have money you don't have power.

D'AMICO: That's probably what it is. They're trying to break you and they don't give a (obs) that happens as long as they stop your income.

GIANCANA: Sure. Don't worry about it.

D'AMICO: I worry about it. We're all alone remember that. I got the feeling that nobody wants us. Whenever we talk to anybody about something kinky they back off. The trouble is nobody is hungry, they're all loaded. It's no good no more I'll tell you that. If a guy does you a little favor for something and they know it's for us they ruin the guy, they blast him. That's the truth. I was there, I was on the Sub-Committee, the state making committee, there was the Mayor and so and [redacted] don't say a (obs) word. [redacted] is the guy who fought and not the Mayor's guy [redacted] Mayor's office, possible candidate for Superior Court Judgeship) work, we got a couple of good guys on there, that [redacted] is really, he's close to [redacted] b6 b7C

D'AMICO: So [redacted] said, so [redacted] said, and another thing [redacted] because my name ends with an "O" or an "I" the irony of all this is that the Italian Americans elected [redacted] and this is the appreciation they get by his harassing anybody and saying he's a criminal if he's Italian. He said how do you think I feel a legitimate businessman all my life making inquiries from me about myself. Why is it you ask about this man when this man was responsible for [redacted] being elected. Without this state [redacted] was in a lot of trouble. They'd ask for a recount in a few other states and it would have shown that [redacted] won best. If it wasn't for the Italian voter in this city KENNEDY would never have got in. They went for him 100 per cent and this is what we got for it. But with me I said pay [redacted] how come KENNEDY don't want to talk to me. He said he won't talk to you. He says he (KENNEDY) says that D'AMICO won't even say hello to me. He's always too busy. But that all I can get is my (obs) talking to him. b6 b7C

GIANCANA: All they're looking for is information.

D'AMICO: He don't wants no time with me. They got a guy named SHEA, huh? (SA JOSEPH G. SHEA, Chicago Division)

GIANCANA: I don't know.

D'AMICO: He called up LOUIE (LOUIS DENATA) this guy SHEA did and LOUIE said I don't want to have nothing to do with ya. SHEA said this is the FBI and I'd like to see ya, this is for your own benefit. So LOUIE said there ain't a (obs) thing you can do for my benefit, I ain't interested. Good-by and hung up on him.

(pause)

You goin' South?

GIANCANA: Is not for a while.

D'AMICO: Is it all right if I go away?

GIANCANA: Yeah, that's all right.

(both leave)

Most of the above conversation is self explanatory. It serves to illuminate the political scene in Chicago and the thinking of Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY and his relationship with the D'AMICO element. It has been conjectured for some time by this office that DALEY had been for years a political bedfellow of people such as JOHN D'AMICO which changed radically upon DALEY's emerging upon the national political scene and magnified upon the breaking of the Chicago Police Department scandal in 1960. It is interesting to note that D'AMICO lays claim to the fact that if it had not been for the Italian political workers in the Presidential election KENNEDY would not have won the State of Illinois and reciprocated by investigating the same people. b7D

It is noteworthy here to reflect that this whole organization is very much concerned over the FBI investigation on its activities and is alarmed by the fact that FBI Agents are "knocking their brains out" in this investigation and are leaving no stone unturned. It seems to be the considered opinion of D'AMICO and GIANCANA that the primary reason for this whole investigation [redacted]

[redacted] Since gambling is now shut down the syndicate again must look for other avenues for revenue probably in legitimate enterprises. As far as the soldiers of the syndicate are concerned, that is to say the individual bookmaker, gambler and juice man, these men are on their own and will probably revert to their old standbys, the use of violence by way of robberies, burglaries, and so forth, to supplement their income.

SAC, CHICAGO (92-350-SUB D) 2/28/62

SA WILLIAM F. COLLIER

CG 6343-C*

CG 6343-C* advised on 2/27/62 that on that date Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO spent practically the entire time during the mid morning through mid afternoon hours in the presence of the informant. Chicago top hoodlums GUS ALEX and RALPH PIERCE were also present during much of the above time as was their bodyguard and chauffeur, MR. GODFREY.

At 11:55 a.m. RALPH PIERCE arrived and complained about the situation in Chicago as follows:

C - Chicago
1-92-565 (FRANK FERRARO)
1-92-373 (GUS ALEX)
1-92-375 (RALPH PIERCE)
1-92- (EDWARD VOGEL)
1-92-343 (MURRAY HUMPHREYS)

PIERCE: Aw, (obs), Nothing new, nothing doing. Every place you go around here nothing going. Everybody crying. It's the same (obs) story no matter where you go. Guy came up to me yesterday. Said can't you give me a job. I said, I'm closed and it looks like I'm gonna be closed from now on. I can't do nothing about it.

Following the above HY GODFREY informed ALEX, PIERCE and FERRARO concerning some individuals he believed to be FBI Agents who were apparently attempting a surveillance from the Croydon Hotel, possibly of Mike Fish's Restaurant, which is across the street. ALEX was critical of GODFREY due to the fact that he did not get complete descriptions and follow these individuals as ALEX felt should have been done.

ALEX then indicated to GODFREY that he possibly intended to have dinner at Mike Fish's Restaurant that evening.

FERRARO at this point had the following conversation with his conferees:

FERRARO: Yesterday in the restaurant there was a tall guy. Came in a green Ford. Kinda tall, looked Greek. He was watchin' me. I looked at him. He looked at me thru the bar mirror.

GODFREY: FRANK, them two guys was there at the office yesterday. You asked me about them? There's another guy too. KEMPFF.

ALEX: Yeah, I've heard that name. He's a mean (obs). These other guys must be new guys. I've never heard of their names.

FERRARO: I know him. (At Alexandria or ALEXANDER) Where do they stay?

ALEX: Ambassador East or West.

GODFREY: Some of them used to stay at the Piccadilly.

FERRARO: HY, get me a hamburger with everything on it. And a malted.

In relation to the above, it is noted that SA AUGUST C. KEMPFF is currently assigned to the Top Hoodlum Program of the Chicago Office. SA KEMPFF is one of the original members of the Top Hoodlum Squad who was assigned the investigation of Chicago top hoodlums, JIMMY ALLEGRETTI and JOE DI VARCO. Following a period of time when he was assigned to other matters SA KEMPFF has returned to the Criminal Intelligence Program and is currently assigned to the investigations of Chicago top hoodlums, FELIX ALDERISIO and ALBERT FRABOTTA. He is tall and dark-complected and, therefore, fits the description of the individual described by FERRARO. It is a fact that some Agents of the Chicago Office reside at the Piccadilly Hotel on the South side of Chicago. However, no Agents have every resided in the Ambassador East or West Hotels which are probably the most expensive hotels in Chicago.

Following the above, ALEX told the following story:

ALEX: Want to hear a good one, FRANK. EDDIE (VOGEL) and BUTCH went to a wake last night. STEVE was there and he said come here I want to have you meet the Mayor. And he introduced them to the Mayor. And STEVE says this is Mr. LADON, BUTCH. How do you do. BUTCH says, hey, you're lookin' pretty good Mr. Mayor! He says, why shouldn't I look good! That BUTCH! Ha, ha, ha, ha. This was last night.

At approximately 1:00 p.m. GUS ALEX departed with GODFREY and indicated that he was going to "take a little hike and then I'll go call the lawyer." It is believed he refers to MIKE BRODKIN, his close associate.

FERRARO remained during most of the afternoon with [redacted] playing gin rummy; however, no further conversation of interest was obtained.

b6
b7C

CG 6343-C* advised on 2/26/62 that on that day just prior to the noon hour GUS ALEX arrived and played gin rummy with an unknown individual. During the course of their conversation the following took place:

UNKNOWN: He was in. He wanted to see [redacted] I told him he wasn't around. [redacted] looks very, very thin. Very, very thin.

At approximately noon MURRAY HUMPHREYS arrived.

HUMPHREYS: Whata you guys doing in here? Oh, I see, the boss is here.

ALEX: Hello buddy.

HUMPHREYS: What about RALPH, GUSSIE?

ALEX: What about him?

HUMPHREYS: Where does he wanta meet ya?

ALEX: He said over to [redacted] downstairs.

HUMPHREYS: How will I tell him on the phone?

ALEX: Tell him where Ding Dong lives. That's all, he knows.

[redacted] Listen, I got a date with the old man tomorrow. If he wants to see you, is it all right? He wanted to know if both of you are in town.

HUMPHREYS: All right, I'll see him.

[redacted] All right then, you're available?

HUMPHREYS: OK.

Whose camera is this here? I'm gonna play with it.

GUS I'll meet ya over there. I gotta leave, I gotta make some calls. Who's gonna check for me now?

ALEX: Well you can go this way.

HUMPHREYS: Oh, I don't like to go that way, it's always too crowded.

b6
b7C

The reference to [redacted] is possibly to the residence of [redacted] inasmuch as [redacted] was closed approximately two months ago. [redacted] lives at [redacted] which would be within walking distance of [redacted] From the manner in which HUMPHREYS left [redacted] it would appear that he was being very cautious in leaving and that ALEX took a look outside onto Michigan Avenue to determine whether any automobiles of law enforcement agencies were in the neighborhood.
